Introduction

The "Get Tight Sucka! Texas Swordfish Seminar" had it's best year ever, held in March 2013. The seminar aims to raise money for the charity supporting US Veterans of Everyday Heroes, Incorporated. Everyday Heroes is a nonprofit organization that focuses on getting US Veterans transportation to and from medical appointments, helps provide wheelchairs, and also wheel chair ramps to our Veterans in their homes.

One of the main highlights of the Texas Swordfish Seminar was their "Make You Famous Swordfishing Trip" event that was auctioned off by donors of the Booby Trap Fishing Team and Holden Roofing. For the second year in a row, the winning bidder, John Duffy with CTC Concrete, Incorporated of Richmond, Texas, won a two person trip to join the Booby Trap Fishing Team on a multiple day swordfishing adventure. Departing from Surfside Marina and traveling 100 miles off the Texas coast, they set out with the main goal to target daytime and nighttime swordfish. The trip auctioned for just under $17,000.00 with 100% of all of the proceeds going to the Everyday Heroes.

4TH ANNUAL
TEXAS
SWORDFISH
SEMINAR

The event held at Surfside Marina in Surfside Beach, Texas, is presented by Brett Holden and The Booby Trap Fishing Team with the help and promotion of multiple sponsors, magazines, and media groups. The Texas Swordfish Seminar has been recently recognized as the "largest swordfishing lecture in the world." During the first year in 2011, approximately 500 fishermen attended; learning how to catch and target swordfish from one the best swordfishing crews in the world featuring Brett Holden and the Booby Trap Fishing Team. In 2012, the event attendance was over 1,200 people and by 2013 the event attendance grew to 2,000 plus fisherman from around the US. All three years of the Texas Swordfish Seminar combined have raised over $500,000 for the US Veterans of Everyday Heroes, Incorporated. This year, we plan to blow last year's event fund-raising efforts out of the water!

SWORDFISHING ADVENTURE

LAST YEAR'S 2013 TRIP WINNERS

John Duffy knows there is only one way to get on the best swordfish boat in the world as the boat does not run charters. Enter Team Booby Trap owner Brett Holden of Texas. Brett is the owner of the luxurious 60-foot Viking Booby Trap. Each year Brett and his team host the Texas Swordfish Seminar, which has become the biggest sword-fishing lecture in the world. Brett donates a trip on his boat to the highest bidder at the event's auction.

The trip is for two people to join the famous Booby Trap fishing team on a multiple-day sword-fishing adventure, departing South Padre Island and fishing 100 miles off the Texas coast to target swordfish day and night. This year's trip went to Duffy for just under $17,000, and 100 percent of all proceeds were donated to the Veterans Affairs Foundation.

The shuttle runs 5 days a week and any Veteran is eligible to ride. Since the program began, with your support, the Everyday Heroes, Inc., we have transported over 13,000 Veterans covering the many costs associated with the shuttle program: purchasing the vehicle, mechanic upkeep, gasoline, insurance, drivers, tires, etc..

Everyday Heroes, Inc. also covers the construction costs to update Veteran's homes to accommodate wheelchair accessibility. All of the donations to Everyday Heroes, Inc. goes directly to the program with no administrative costs associated.
